CONVENTION
September 19 & 20, 2009

Attention all reporters: captioners, realtimers, judicial reporters, teachers and students. Join ISRA once again in Indianapolis, Indiana, for a powerful convention with a speaker lineup like no other before. Featuring for the first time ever, unbeaten speed contest winner Ed Varallo; Ohio's Speed Contest winner, Chuck Cady; and back by popular demand, Mark Kislingbury, 360 wpm record holder helping us to improve our ways to write short! We've got an evening of fun lined up for Saturday, along with a silent auction of many items, including an Elan Mira.
